Insurance Wholesaler Socius Insurance Services, Inc. Announces Three Changes to Leadership

San Francisco, Calif. – September 24, 2015. Socius Insurance Services, Inc., a management liability and property/casualty insurance wholesaler, announced that effective September 17, 2015, it has made three changes to its leadership team in an effort to better align for future growth.

With a goal of better aligning objectives with customer needs, Greg Miller of the Miami Beach, Florida office has accepted the position of Chief Sales Officer for Socius and will oversee marketing and sales. Second, Eric Shapiro, has assumed the role of Regional President for the Southeast. The region represents well over a third of Socius’s volume and encompasses the Tampa and Miami Beach, Florida offices, as well as the Birmingham, Alabama office.

Lastly, Rodney Nubin of the Elgin, Illinois office and Derick Stitik of the Tampa, Florida office have been named the Casualty and Property Practice Leaders, respectively.

“I look forward to working with each of these individuals in their expanded roles and am confident we will see continued success as an organization under their leadership,” said Patrick E. Hanley, Sr., President of Socius Insurance Services, Inc.
